Details of the Programme :

Goals and objectives :

1. To motivate students to take up Civil services as career option.
2. To help students utilize pandemic period for preparation of Competitive exams.
3. To orient students about the structured way of planning their studies.

Highlights of the programme

Preparation of competitive exams has always been encouraged at Maulana Azad College. The Placement & Competitive Exam Cell of the college makes every effort to guide the students and provide support and help in preparation for such exams. Many of the students of the college have cracked such exams and are serving in various capacities at Central and State level positions. One such student of the college Mr.Shaikh Salman is presently working as Assistant Commissioner of CGST, Guwahati. He was more than happy to accept the invitation from college to guide and motivate the students. Despite of his busy schedule he found time for the students and shared his experiences at preparation for competitive exams with the students. He briefed the students the need and relevance of contributing as policy makers. He also discussed with the students about planning their studies, working on time management and many other techniques to manage their studies. He emphasized the need of reading the reference books atleast 3 to 4 times. Talked of his journey from Kavish foundation to Synergy Pune and thereafter to Hajjhouse and Jamia Milia

Islamiya study circle. He aptly resolved many doubts of the students and helped them overcome their anxieties arising due to pandemic.

Dr.M.A.Bari welcomed the invited speaker Mr.Shaikh Salman and shared his views for the programme. Dr.Sayyad Sultan, Coordinator for the event introduced the speaker. Principal Dr.Mazahar Ahamad Farooqui in his Presidential address expressed satisfaction that the students of the college were becoming aware and inquisitive towards competitive exams. He also shared with the students the need for self-discipline and hardwork for achieving their career aspirations. Dr.M.A.Bari Vice Principal, Dr.AditiBhattacharya, IQAC Coordinator, members from teaching and non-teaching staff attended the webinar. Dr.Arif Pathan was the convener of the event.

Relevance and outcome :

Students were highly benefitted with the lecture. They were motivated and oriented with the success mantras of competitive exams.
