In adherence to the directives set forth by the University Grants Commission (UGC), our college proudly celebrated Anti-Ragging Week from August 12 to August 17, 2024, under the esteemed guidance of Principal Dr. MazaharAhemadFarooqui. One of the key highlights of this week was the "Elocution Competition" organized by the Anti-Ragging Committee on August 14, 2024, aimed at fostering a culture of respect and awareness among students. This engaging event featured three thought-provoking topics:

- 1) Evil Elements in Education.
- 2) Effect of Social Media on Mental Health.
- 3) Give Respect, Take Respect.

The competition welcomed diverse linguistic expression, allowing students to speak in English, Hindi, Urdu, and Marathi, thereby promoting inclusivity and engagement. Among the participants, eight students showcased their eloquence and passion for the chosen topics, captivating the audience with their insights. Dr. Rafiuddin Naser, the Chairman of the Anti-ragging Committee, delivered an inspiring presidential speech that emphasized the paramount importance of moral values and ethics in education, urging students to uphold dignity and integrity within the academic environment. The event was efficiently coordinated by Dr. Md. Mukhtar, whose seamless management ensured a smooth flow of activities. Additionally, the presence of faculty members Mr. Sk. Uzair and Dr. Sk. Sadikali lent further support and encouragement to the students, reinforcing the collective commitment of the institution towards creating a safe and respectful atmosphere free from ragging. This initiative not only highlighted the college's dedication to eradicating ragging but also fostered a sense of community and dialogue among students, setting a positive precedent for future events.
